About TIBO

TakeItBack.Org believes that our democratic institutions face dangerous challenges from a political system that is becoming increasingly partisan and unresponsive.

Contents

- Vision ........................................................................................................................................................... 3
- Mission .......................................................................................................................................................... 3
- Values .......................................................................................................................................................... 3
- 1. Reforms .................................................................................................................................................... 4
  1.1. Campaign Finance ............................................................................................................................ 4
  1.2. Ethics & Nonpartisanship .................................................................................................................. 4
  1.3. Voting Rights ..................................................................................................................................... 4
  1.4. Immigration ....................................................................................................................................... 4
  1.5. Climate Change .................................................................................................................................. 4
  1.6. Gun Safety ......................................................................................................................................... 4
  1.7. Native Americans .............................................................................................................................. 4
- 2. Mobilization ............................................................................................................................................. 5
  2.1. Candidates ........................................................................................................................................ 5
  2.2. Causes .............................................................................................................................................. 5
  2.3. Ballot Initiatives ................................................................................................................................. 5
TakeItBack.Org (TIBO)

Description:

TakeItBack.Org is an independent, non-partisan organization ...

Stakeholder(s):

Rick Weiland:
Co-Founder — Former U.S. Senate candidate

Drey Samuelson:
Co-Founder — Former Chief of Staff to U.S. Senator Tim Johnson

Everyday Citizens

Vision

Government works for everyday citizens

Mission

To take back our government from the undue influence of wealthy special interests

Values

Independence
Non-partisanship
Responsiveness
1. Reforms

Promote reforms in a variety of areas

1.1. Campaign Finance
   Reform campaign finance

1.2. Ethics & Nonpartisanship
   Promote ethics and nonpartisanship

1.3. Voting Rights
   Support voting rights

1.4. Immigration
   Foster immigration

1.5. Climate Change
   Address climate change

1.6. Gun Safety
   Advocate for gun safety

1.7. Native Americans
   Address Native American issues

Stakeholder(s):
Native Americans
2. Mobilization

Mobilize the American people to act

We will use our resources to support candidates, causes and ballot initiatives to directly confront these problems, and will use all avenues including social media to mobilize the American people to act.

2.1. Candidates
Support candidates for elective office

2.2. Causes
Support causes

2.3. Ballot Initiatives
Support ballot initiatives